Global HR & B2B Sales Professional | Vietnam–Japan Market |
Cross-Border Talent & Business Growth
Tokyo, Japan

Summary

I am a Vietnam-born HR and business professional currently building my career in Japan, with experience spanning HR services and remote sales in the Vietnam market. My background in HR allows me to understand people, talent strategy, and organizational growth. My experience in sales has strengthened my ability to identify business needs, build trusted relationships, and deliver measurable results. Working across borders has shaped how I see opportunities — not limited by geography, but expanded by perspective. Over the past few years, I have worked closely with Vietnamese businesses while operating remotely, developing strong skills in:

- HR consulting and talent solutions
- B2B sales and client relationship management
- Cross-cultural communication

I believe sustainable growth happens when people strategy and business strategy move in the same direction. Now based in Japan, my long-term focus is on:

- Cross-border talent development
- Vietnam–Japan business collaboration
- Global workforce solutions
- Building meaningful partnerships that create long-term value

Rooted in Vietnam. Growing in Japan. Connecting talent, business, and opportunities across borders.
